Hockey Alberta closing office, staff working remotely

RED DEER – As the COVID-19 pandemic continues to evolve, Hockey Alberta is taking additional measures to protect our staff and the hockey community. We are temporarily closing our Red Deer office for the next two weeks as of 4:30 pm on Friday, March 20.

While the office is closed, Hockey Alberta is still open for business, with staff working remotely. We are striving to carry on regular operations with as little interruption as possible. During this time, the best way to contact us is via the following channels:

- Direct email: A staff list, with a direct link to each staff's email, can be found on our website: <https://www.hockeyalberta.ca/about-hockey-alberta/staff-contacts/>
- General email: Submit your inquiry to info@hockeyalberta.ca
- Website: Submit your inquiry through the Hockey Alberta website: <https://www.hockeyalberta.ca/contact/>
- By phone: Call Hockey Alberta's main line, 403-342-6777, and leave a voicemail (please specify the recipient of the message or a brief description of what you're calling about). Your message will be delivered via our voicemail-to-email platform.

The office will remain closed until at least Monday, April 6. As circumstances develop, we will keep everyone informed of changes and updates. We apologize for any issues or inconvenience that may arise due to the office being closed.

Please take all precautions to stay safe. Follow the directions of local, provincial and federal health and government authorities, as we work together with fellow Albertans, and citizens across the country, to help resolve this situation.

Thank you for your patience and cooperation as we continue to work through these uncharted waters.

Rob Litwinski,
CEO, Hockey Alberta
